*Please attach supporting documentation to help justify the proposed special use. Any plans or other documents elaborating upon the application are helpful to the planning commissioners and will help facilitate the process. The more detailed the documentation, the smoother the process will be, as commissioners will have many of their questions already answered. (For commercial developments of more than 10,000 sq. ft. and residential developments involving three units or more, a site plan will be required).

Please allow 60 days for the process, as these all will go in front of Planning Commission and Village Board.
